JOHN HAMMOND SWAc

28TH APRIL – 10TH MAY

"This year is the 20th since I had a pair of small Venice paintings showing in the Royal Institute Of Oil Painters exhibition at the Mall Galleries, London. Both paintings sold at the preview and a week or so later I was delighted to receive a letter from Amanda of the John Noott Galleries who had spotted my work. We met, and very soon it was agreed that I would join the gallery's fine stable of regular exhibitors.

The rest as they say is history, with the resulting string of highly successful solo exhibitions over the years being due in no small part to the special relationship that has grown between gallery and artist. With this in mind it seems so fitting that for this exhibition I have chosen to include a group of paintings celebrating the beautiful village of Broadway which I believe are the perfect complement to the fresh and vibrant West Country seascapes and interior and musician paintings which accompany them. I invite you to celebrate along with us."
